Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Thursday 01 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry with bright or sunny spells.

Today:
Many places will be dry and warm with bright or sunny spells. However, isolated heavy and slow moving afternoon showers may develop, these most likely across Hampshire. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Tonight:
Any residual isolated showers will soon die away this evening, leaving clears spells. However, through the night areas of mist and low cloud are likely to develop. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
Mist and low cloud will clear inland, but may linger along some coasts. As sunny spells break through so isolated showers will develop, these potentially heavy and slow moving. Warm. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Bright or sunny spells and showers throughout, these often heavy, occasionally thundery, and perhaps merging into longer spells of rain at times. Mist and low cloud may affect coasts. Warm.
